ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ON ACTIVITIES PURSUED

Head Student Council

As the Head Girl at DPS Gurgaon, I work towards building a smooth channel of communication between my peers, the board of directors, teachers and school coordinators. I lead a body of nearly 6000 students and strive for excellence, both in the sphere of academics and extra-curricular activities. I represented the school for international projects including the global leadership program Civic Obligation and Responsibility at the Boston Latin School. Further, I represented the peer education community of our city at the Manodarpan Webinar organised by the Ministry of Education, India, CBSE and Expressions India. For my activities as a member of the student body, I was awarded the Rex Karamveer Award by iCONGO and the UN along with the Principal's Student of the Year Award for excellence in academic and non-academic activities.

Editor - Vice Student Council

As a member of the school's Editorial Board, I edited the school magazine and the yearbook along with coordinating inter-school literary events. By selecting topics like mental health, pride and love in modern day, for the school magazine, I focused my attention on bringing a change in the mindset of society through first-hand experiences of my peers. I learnt to pursue my passion of writing and leading from the front.

Model United Nations Best Delegate in NCR Delhi

As a member of the school delegation at various national Model United Nations Conferences, I have won several accolades including the Best Delegate Award and the Best School Delegation Prize at numerous regional and national platforms. Through MUN's, I have honed my skills of problem solving, diplomacy, analytical thinking, logical reasoning and articulation.

Community Service

By volunteering with the Faridabad Education Council under the aegis of Manav Rachna University for 2 years I have worked closely with children from Government schools across various age groups. Educating the underprivileged and giving back to the society never fails to bring me satisfaction and immense joy! Further, tutoring students as a part of the Silver Level IAYP, I honed my interactional abilities and learnt to alter my communication skills according to the needs of the receiver.

Research

I analyzed the impact of self-concept on academic performance and handling of peer pressure by adolescents. I collected first-hand data using psychometric tests gave me an insight into the foundations of Experimental Psychology. I used Karl Pearson's Correlational Study Method to study the relationship between Self-Concept and Academic Performance and the relationship between Self-Concept and Positive and Negative Peer Pressure. The paper was published in International Journal of Multidisciplinary Educational Research and the Social Science Research Network. In the second paper, I evaluated the coping strategies adopted by students during the pandemic by developing a null and alternative hypothesis and using Karl Pearson's correlational method. I used the Coping Strategy Indicator by James H. Amirkhan and a self-designed questionnaire to collect the data. It was published in the International Journal of Advance Research, Ideas and Innovations. Further, I collaborated with students from the Wayne Community College and VIII Prywatne Akademickie Liceum Ogólnokształcące of Kraków, Poland to research and document the migration between Africa and China. I was awarded the certificate of achievement for excellent student to student diplomacy.
